

NEW PRESIDENT TAKES UP DUTIES

First Day Proves Busy One—Meets Many People at White House

HIS "OPEN DOOR" POLICY

Policy Explained to be Open Door Only to Those Who Call on Public Business

JOB HUNTERS NOT WELCOME

WASHINGTON, MARCH 5.—With the tinsel and the military pomp, the cheers of the multitude, the stirring music of the bands, and the heavy tread of marching thousands, the fireworks, and the limelight, only a pleasant memory, Woodrow Wilson to day settled down to business.

Almost his first act was to serve notice upon office seekers that they will not be welcome at the white house unless they have been invited. Almost his last tonight was a conference with John W. Kern, to day chosen leader of the Democrats of the senate and reputed the representative of the administration in the upper house. In between he found time to shake hands with hundreds of persons, consult with his new cabinet and with a few friends in congress, dictate letters and generally launch his own ship of inauguration.

In spite of the reports that Mr. Wilson might be expected to change many of the precedents that have grown up about the presidency he bothered with none of importance to day except that which permitted the office seeker to invade the white house. He fitted in easily with the machinery of the executive offices did mostly what trained officials told him should be done, and took up the routine of government with ease.

Thomas P. Tumulty, Mr. Wilson's secretary was just about as busy as his chief. He talked to the newspaper men stationed at the white house a half dozen times, dictated many letters, received the congratulations of scores of friends from New Jersey and talked with many prominent Democrats. The president spent the morning in his office, the afternoon in the white house at luncheon and in the east room receiving delegations and at 4 o'clock shut up shop and went out with Mrs. Wilson for his first automobile ride through Washington. All delegations received to day came by appointment and the reported policy of the "open door" was explained to be an open door only to those who call upon public business.

After luncheon with his family and Secretary Tumulty Mr. Wilson learned one of the uses of the east room. He stood forty minutes and shook hands with 1,144 persons. Major Thomas L. Rhoads, personal aide for a year to former President Taft, shot them by as fast as he could get their names and the new president never flinched at the ordeal.

Rides Around Washington

With all the callers disposed of Mr. Wilson, called for one of the white house automobiles used by Mr. Taft and started out for a spin around Washington. No aide in uniform such as accompanied Mr. Taft went with him, but the two motorcycle policemen assigned to guard the president on such trips kept close behind on the side. After the president returned from his automobile ride, Lindley M. Garrison, the secretary of war had a brief conference with him.

Mr. Bryan the secretary of state called after Mr. Garrison left. He brought with him Huntington Wilson, former assistant secretary of state and the heads of the various bureaus of the state department, presenting them to the president. Secretary Bryan said there were some questions in the various bureaus which required the attention of the president at once, but that they concerned routine chiefly.

Speaks to Department Heads

William Jennings Bryan in addressing the assistant secretaries and heads of the various bureaus of the state department to day declared:

"I am not prepared to discuss tenure in office. My own tenure is, as I was about to say, brief, but my tenure has not even begun. I am sure your tenure is therefore, I not more uncertain than mine. I have not had time to learn from the president the general policy that will be impressed on the various departments but it is not necessary for us to discuss the length of service. It is sufficient at this time to make each others acquaintance and I hope that when the time comes for me to reassemble you to introduce you to my successor I can look back upon as delightful an administration as the retiring secretary does."

Mr. Bryan's words caused surprise but he followed them with no explanation.

News to Olney

Boston March 5.—"This is the first time I have heard of the matter," said Richard Olney to day, when shown a Washington dispatch mentioning him as President Wilson's probable selection as ambassador to Great Britain. As to whether he would accept the post it was offered him, Mr. Olney said he could

BILL PERMITTING RAILROAD PASSES

O'HARA FAVORS LAW FOR USE OF STATE OFFICIALS

Will Introduce Measure Permitting Members of Judiciary and Officials of State to Enjoy Free Railroad Transportation.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., MARCH 5.—Acting Governor Barrett O'Hara favors a law permitting officials to enjoy railroad passes. He says there is a statute in New Jersey of this kind. He believes the remedy for the so-called pass evil will be found in regulating the issuance of passes rather than prohibition of passes. He will father a bill along this line. Speaking of legislators with passes, he said:

"So far as I am concerned, I do not blame them much, although I never accepted a pass in my life. The members must necessarily ride back and forth two or three times a week and they cannot afford to pay their fare under their present salary they receive."

Under the New Jersey law he says practically all public officials must be given on all of the roads in the state.

"If my bill should be passed, added Lieutenant Governor O'Hara, then a bill prohibiting other than state officers and members of the judiciary from accepting passes could be enacted into law. Under the present system a state officer who accepts a pass must feel under some sort of obligation to the corporations which gives such pass. If the law provided that free transportation be issued it would place the public official where he would not be under any such obligation."

Who will introduce the bill in the senate has not been determined upon but it will probably be either Senator W. Duff Ptery of Mt. Vernon, or Senator Walter I. Manny of Mt. Sterling.

Leaves for Chicago Tonight

Acting Governor Barrett O'Hara, who is chairman of the senate "white slave" committee will go to Chicago tomorrow night to preside over the committee's sessions at the LaSalle hotel.

As information has reached members of the committee that some of the employers of female help in Chicago are preparing to combat the efforts of the committee to inquire into wages paid, Lieutenant Governor O'Hara today asked for an opinion from the attorney general as to whether the committee could inquire into the subject of wages.

Some of those who were subpoenaed to appear before the committee raise the point that the committee was organized for the purpose of investigating "white slavery" and under the terms of the resolution creating the committee it cannot investigate the subject of wages.

Members of the committee hold that the relation of wages to the "white slave" evil is vitally important and in case the attorney general holds the committee cannot legally investigate the question of wages, its powers will be enlarged to make such investigation possible.

May Secure Release

Efforts on the part of friends of Maurice "Moss" Enright to secure his release from Joliet penitentiary where he was sentenced for life for the murder of Vincent Altman, have resulted in the uncovering of evidence which tends to show that "Dutch" Gentleman and not Enright, fired the shot which killed Altman.

S. J. Murphy, an electrical worker of Springfield, declared positively to day that he saw the fatal shot fired in the Briggs House bar on March 22nd, 1911, and that a man whom he afterwards learned was William "Dutch" Gentleman killed Altman. Gentleman himself was slain about a year ago.

Lieutenant Governor O'Hara says he will turn a letter over to the state board of pardons when that body meets to consider the petition for Enright's pardon, which is now being tried.

GRANTED PERMISSION TO TEST TREATMENT

New York City Health Authorities Give Qualified Permission to Dr. Friedmann for Tests.

New York, March 5.—Qualified permission for Dr. Frederick F. Friedmann of Berlin to test his treatment, which he claims is a cure for tuberculosis, was granted him by the city health authorities to day. The test, however, will not be in city institutions and the physician must abide by legal regulations in giving his treatment it was ruled.

"The health department will not object to his use of the treatment in the city provided he lives up to the legal regulations of the county medical society," said Dr. Ernest Edey, the health commissioner to night in a statement on the action of the authorities regarding Dr. Friedmann's treatment. "His treatment will not be demonstrated in city institutions, however."

KILLED BY DYNAMITE

San Bernardino, Calif., March 5.—Two men were slain outright and four fatally injured today by a delayed shot of dynamite at a railroad construction camp near Knebrook, ten miles north of here. Ten more were injured seriously by the rain of rock torn from the cliff by the blast.

NAT'L COMMITTEE WOULD AID ELECTION

Democratic Organization Seeks Election of Lewis and Boeschstein

TWO STATES UNCERTAIN

New Hampshire Besides Illinois is Deadlocked on Election of Senator

COMMITTEE VISITS WILSON

WASHINGTON, MARCH 5.—The Democratic national committee in session here today under call of its chairman, William F. McCombs, took cognizance of the senatorial deadlocks in Illinois and New Hampshire and adopted a resolution expressing the hope that Democrats be elected to the senate to fill the vacancies in those states.

The resolution, introduced by Clark Howell of Georgia directed Chairman McCombs to take such action as he deems necessary to assure the election of two Democratic senators in Illinois and one Democrat in New Hampshire. In Illinois James Hamilton Lewis and Charles Boeschstein, the national committeemen are the Democratic candidates. In New Hampshire Henry P. Hollis has come within a few votes of election, though several Democrats refrained from voting for him.

Still Holds Chairmanship

Despite the fact that Mr. McCombs has been offered the ambassadorship to France by President Wilson and the belief of his friends that he may accept the post, he did not relinquish the chairmanship of the national committee today and in his address to the members he gave indications that he expects to direct the party organization for some time.

In response to a resolution of thanks for his work in the last campaign Mr. McCombs said he believed in a broader scope of activities for the national committee and that it would be a delight to him to carry on the work as far as he could.

"I don't believe," said Mr. McCombs, "after an election or an attempted election of president a committee should be dormant until a few months before another election. I believe we should be in thorough cooperation all of the time. I don't myself know how to get along without organization. My mind runs in those channels. With reference to the organization which we now have I think we have the best fighting body of Democrats in this country. If you had not been you would not be here."

Has Systematized Work

"Fortunately during the past few years I have systematized the work which is now before us very thoroughly. I believe that in order to assure a continuation of what we have accomplished we have got to be an organized army and unless we do organize as an army we are going to meet an organized army on the other side and there may be danger."

The committee elected Homer S. Cummings of Connecticut as vice-chairman, Rolla Wells of Missouri, treasurer, and voted to establish headquarters in Washington to be in charge of Charles W. Pence.

Presents Silver Sheet

During the session the committee was addressed by Mrs. Mary E. Foy of Los Angeles, president of the California Women's Democratic league, who declared that Democratic women of California had much to do in splitting the electoral vote in that state in the last election. Tonight the members of the committee were received in the east room of the white house by President Wilson. There the president was presented by National Committeeman Moore of Ohio with a large rolled silver sheet bearing the engraved names of one hundred Ohio Democrats, the portraits of the president and vice-president and a picture of the Ohio state house. The sheet is said to be the largest piece of sheet silver ever rolled.

Before visiting the house the committee witnessed the swearing in of Josephus Daniels, one of its members, as secretary of the navy, and visited Secretaries Bryan, McAdoo and Garrison.

The committee adjourned tonight subject to the call of the chairman.

FILES $100,000 SUIT

New Orleans, La., March 5.—A suit to recover $100,000 in custom duties alleged to be due the government through fraudulent sampling of importations of sugar was filed here today in the federal district court against the American Sugar Refining company.

The refining company denies frauds have been committed by any of its officers or agents.

WEBB PLEADS NOT GUILTY

Chicago, March 5.—"Teddy" Webb, leader of the most daring of the winter's automobile bandit gangs and alleged slayer of Detective Peter Hart, today pleaded not guilty to the murder charge and to eight charges of robbery.

SONORA PREPARING TO CLAIM INDEPENDENCE

NORTHERN STATE READY FOR CAM- PAIGN AGAINST HUERTA

Rebels Declare They Will Make an Attack on Agua Prieta This Morning—Ninth Cavalry Still Patrol Border With Machine Gun.

DOUGLAS, ARIZ., MARCH 5.—Trains from the south brought many refugees who reported that northern Sonora is in a state of commotion in preparation for a general campaign to make the border state an independent republic. Private telegrams received here from Mexico City says that Huerta has appointed Manuel Mascareñas provisional governor of Sonora with orders to proceed to Hermosillo and subdue the uprising there. Messages from Hermosillo say that General Obregon has been appointed commander of the constitutionalists in rebellion against the Mexico City government.

The former Maderistas continued mobilization of troops at Colonia Colonia Morelos below this point. Rebels camped ten miles to the south declare they will make an attack tomorrow morning on Agua Prieta, the Mexican border town opposite Douglas. This news brought here late to day by a courier from the rebel camp where five hundred Maderistas under General Samainio and Cordova are located. Desertions have depleted the Agua Prieta garrison to one hundred men and General Ojida finds it impossible to get help from the interior.

All the seven hundred men and machine guns from the Ninth cavalry which have had two brushes with Mexican troops over the line is stretched along the border tonight. By order of the war department a guard of negro troops has been placed at the Douglas water plant.

This was requested by the local residents. Nearly all of the Mexican people here are sympathizers with the new Maderistas.

Colonel Guilfoyle has received orders from Washington only to return the fire of Mexicans over the line when necessary to protect American lives, and to keep the patrol under cover.

Bare Railway Bridges

Nogales, Ariz., March 5.—The campaign against Huerta forces in Sonora was begun late to day when state troops proceeded south from Hermosillo burning bridges along the Southern Pacific railway.

This was done to prevent federal soldiers coming north from Guaymas. The state congress rejected the Mexico City administration J. M. Paredes, a Huerta representative now at the state capital.

The Sonora government told Paredes that if all Huerta troops were kept out of the state that Sonora would remain neutral toward any other uprising elsewhere. But the insurgent state officials insist on absolute local government practically proclaiming secession.

The movement of troops out of Hermosillo is believed to indicate that the proposal was rejected by Huerta through his envoy through Hermosillo.

Two Mexicans Were Killed

Douglas, Ariz., March 5.—Mexican authorities at Agua Prieta said to day that two Mexican soldiers were killed yesterday by the machine gun used by the troops of the Ninth Cavalry in the skirmish on the border near here. This makes a total of six federal soldiers killed since Sunday when the first fight occurred. None of the Mexican troops have been even wounded.

The entire Ninth Cavalry including the machine gun platoon, remains on border to day drawn in a skirmish line for a distance of 20 miles. The Mexican troops have not been sighted near the border.

Madero Brothers Safe

San Antonio, Tex., March 5.—Emilio Madero reported dead half a dozen times and Raol Madero, brothers of the late president of Mexico after a six hundred mile horse back ride from Torreon Mexico to Maroqui, Texas, where they crossed the border, reached San Antonio to day. Twice during the journey they were attacked, making a running fight of it once and the second time escaping by their servants' superior knowledge of the country.

T. R. Beltran, friend of the Maderos who returned to day from Saltillo, Mexico, says that Governor Carranza has 10,000 men at his disposal to unseat General Huerta as provisional president of Mexico.

Repudiate Huerta

Tucson, Ariz., March 5.—The Sonora state congress to day repudiated Huerta's government at Mexico City and issued a general call to arms to all people of the border state.

Orozco, Jr., Reported Dead

San Antonio, Texas, March 5.—Revival of the report that Pascual Orozco, Jr., the Mexican revolutionist has been dead for months was brought here to day by T. R. Beltran, a prominent Mexican who has been in the north of Mexico conferring with revolutionists.

He declared Orozco died from gunshot wounds received at Ojinaga and was buried at San to Domingo, Coahuila.

Orozco's alleged representative Jose Cordova, Beltran asserts has been to Mexico City to use Orozco's name to obtain money for military chiefs.

Refuses to Confer

El Paso, Texas, March 5.—General Pascual Orozco is reported to have refused to come to El Paso for a peace conference with Richard Garcia Grandos, heading the commission trying to adjust differences between the Northern Mexico bands and the Huerta government. Orozco is

The caucus was held in the house chamber and 270 of the 291 house Democrats were present. The following were nominated for ratification by the house when it meets in extra session on April 1st:

Rainey, Illinois; Lincoln Dixon, Indiana; Cordell Hull, Tennessee; W. S. Hammond, Minnesota; Andrew J. Peters, Massachusetts; A. Mitchell Palmer, Pennsylvania; Timothy T. Ansberry, Ohio; John S. Doorkeeper—J. J. Sinnott, Virginia.

Sergeant at arms—Robert B. Gordon, Ohio.

Postmaster—William M. Dunbar, Georgia.

Chaplain—Rev. Henry N. Couden, Washington, D. C.

Meet Again Tomorrow

The Democratic members of the ways and means committee will commence the final committee revision of the tariff next Friday taking up the work where the Democrats constituting the majority of the committee in the last session of congress left it as a "tentative basis."

There will be a tariff caucus, when the extra session convenes to pass upon the report. The caucus today was marked by a good deal of speech-making and enthusiasm. All the nominations for officers were by acclamation, except that for sergeant at arms, on which there was a lively contest that resulted in Gordon's choice over former Representative W. H. Ryan of Albany N. Y., on a vote of 128 to 115.

New Members Elected

Messrs. Garner, Collier and Stanley, the new members of the ways and means committee, were selected as the result of a vote which stood:

Garner, 209; Collier, 141; Stanley, 137; Saunders, Virginia, 92; Coccington, Maryland, and Bartlett of Georgia, 91 each; Taylor, Colorado, 42.

Representative Taylor's nomination was made by Representative Loebeck of Nebraska, who said he acted without Mr. Taylor's authority. The nomination was the result of a move early in the day participated in by 26 Democratic representatives from western states who organized in the interest of the west and better recognition on the more important committees.

Shirley's Resolution

A resolution framed by Representative Shirley to forward his budget reform plan to reduce congressional appropriations was adopted. It recommended to the house the creation of a special committee to consider and report on changes needed in the rules regarding the preparation of appropriation bills and especially on the feasibility of having all the supply measures prepared by one committee.

Clark's Speech

Speaker Clark's speech in acceptance of his renomination dealt with party policies.

"It is a thing incredible," he declared, "that any man fit for official station would let his personal likes or dislikes interfere with his co-operating with any other Democrat in unifying the party in its herculean and multifarious tasks to redeem our pledges."

This utterance was cheered. "The suggestion of any such a state of affairs comes from faint-hearted Democrats who are forever seeing ghosts," the speaker continued, "or from malignant marplots who through masquerading as Democrats are not Democrats at all but wolves in sheep's clothing. Certain of these venomous eleven hours Democrats are loudly mouthing in proclaiming trouble where none exists and in laying down a rule of conduct for real Democrats."

"Genuine Democrats who have the

SUFFRAGETTES WILL PUSH INVESTIGATION

SENATE COMMITTEE WILL BEGIN AN INQUIRY TODAY

Women Are Determined to Place Responsibility For Lack of Protection Afforded Women Marchers on Last Monday.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 5.—Aroused over the failure of the Washington police department to maintain order during the progress of the suffrage parade on March 3rd, the senate today began an investigation to place the responsibility for the lack of protection for the women marchers. The investigation is a result of a joint resolution of congress directing the police department to furnish protection to the suffragists.

The investigating committee will begin its inquiry tomorrow. Superintendent of Police Sylvester today declared the police force was not to blame, that the force was inadequate to meet the situation that confronted it—guarding the suffrage parade and handling the arrival of President Wilson at the same time.

Many Will Testify

The women are making every effort to obtain as much evidence as possible to present to the committee. At the suffrage headquarters and to Representative Hobson of Alabama, many of women as well as men volunteered to make affidavits or left their names and addresses so that they might be called as witnesses.

General Anson Mills, U. S. A., retired, and Rear-admiral Wainwright and Mrs. Wainwright and Miss Sophy Stanton, granddaughter of Lincoln's secretary of war, are among those who are said to have submitted evidence of indifference on the part of the police.

Miss Alice Paul, chairman of the congressional committee of the national suffrage organization, has taken personal charge of the work of pushing the investigation. She declares she already has obtained conclusive evidence regarding more than fifty policemen who refused to keep back the crowds along Pennsylvania avenue.

WILL DISREGARD LUCEY'S CIVIL SERVICE OPINION

Newly Appointed Commissioner Will Enforce State Civil Service Law as Written.

Springfield, Ill., March 5.—James H. Burdette of Chicago, Governor Dunne's newly appointed state civil service commissioner, and W. B. Moulton, one of the holding commissioners, in a conference here today, agreed to enforce the state civil service law as it is written until the supreme court either re-affirms its constitutionality or decides that the act of 1911 is invalid. This action was taken notwithstanding the recent opinion of Attorney General Lucey that the 1911 amendments to the law are unconstitutional. As Mr. Burdette is the recent appointee of Governor Dunne on the civil service commission his action is construed to bear the stamp of approval of the new state administration. It is said that State Auditor Brady and State Treasurer Ryan will stand with Governor Dunne in disregarding Attorney General's Lucey's opinion until the supreme court has officially passed on the point at issue another time.

MRS. MILLS ARRIVES IN KANSAS CITY

Kansas City, March 5.—Mrs. Mabel Mills, the San Antonio, Texas, woman who lost $41,000 in Evanson, Ill., Saturday, arrived here late today and registered at a hotel under an assumed name. Mrs. Mills immediately sought to see anyone, she told the hotel management that she expected her husband, E. W. Mills of San Antonio, Texas.

Mrs. Mills said she came to Kansas City to get away from Chicago police and newspapermen. She had told them all she knew about the robbery, she said, but they persisted in questioning her.

FRIEDMAN INVITED TO CHICAGO

Chicago, March 5.—Dr. Friedmann of Berlin, now in New York, was today invited to come to Chicago to present his views on the treatment of tuberculosis to members of the Chicago Medical society. The invitation was sent in a telegram signed by Dr. P. J. H. Farrell, secretary of the society. No clinic for the demonstration of the use of the Friedmann serum is promised.

good of the party and the country at heart would do well to give heed to these self-styled Democrats whose chief business is to stir up strife by foully slandering any Democrat who has earned their enmity by being a Democrat at all times, under all circumstances and at all places."

The speaker said the house Democrats had been together since March 19th, 1912, "when for the first time in seventeen years the Democrats in the house electrified the country by voting together—not a man missing in a great struggle."

"I predict," he concluded, "that they will in the sixty-third congress act in unison, not only with themselves but with President Wilson."

Secretaries Bryan, Garrison, Daniels, Lane, Burleson and Wilson.

Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, Secretary of Agriculture Houston, Attorney General McReynolds and Secretary of Commerce Redfield will take their oaths tomorrow.

Mr. Bryan took the oath at the office of the secretary of state where he appeared at 4 o'clock with Mrs. Bryan and a party of friends. Assistant Secretaries Wilson, Adeo and Hall were also present when the oath was administered by William McNair, chief clerk of the department. The first official act of Secretary Bryan was to sign the commissions of the other members of President Wilson's cabinet. The last official act of Secretary Knox was to sign the commission of his successor, Mr. Knox departed this afternoon for Palm Beach, Florida.

Lindley M. Garrison, the new secretary of war was sworn in a few minutes before 4 o'clock by John B. Randolph, chief clerk of the secretary's office who has sworn in every secretary of war since the days of President Grant. Mr. Garrison passed all the forenoon in conference with Secretary Stimson, after taking the oath he received all the army officers in the city and the civilian employees of the department.

The largest gathering to witness the ceremonies attending the induction into office of a cabinet member was present when Josephus Daniels took the oath that made him secretary of the navy. There was only a small party of friends, but the number was soon swelled by members of the Democratic committee, senators, representatives and governors. Chief Justice Shepard of the District of Columbia supreme court, administered the oath of office to Postmaster General Albert Sidney Burleson. Frank H. Hitchcock, the retiring postmaster general and a party of friends were present. Rusklin McAdoo, who has been associated with Mr. Burleson the last twelve years was appointed secretary to the postmaster general. Franklin K. Lane the new secretary of the interior began his cabinet career in the supreme court, having been called there by a departmental case. He was sworn in by Justice McKenna. Mr. Lane, interstate Commissioner Marble and other friends witnessing the ceremony.

When William B. Wilson, the new secretary of labor took the oath of office, that ceremony brought to former Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel, the distinction of being the last secretary of commerce and labor, and the first secretary of commerce. Secretary Nagel will be a member of President Wilson's cabinet until William C. Redfield is sworn in tomorrow as secretary of commerce. Secretary Wilson will serve for the present without salary as congress made no appropriation for his office.

JACKSONVILLE WILL NOT
DEBATE THIS YEARLocal High School Will Not Enter
Try-City Contest With Springfield and Quincy.

Jacksonville high school has decided not to enter the Try-City debating league, which included Springfield and Quincy. Much correspondence has been carried on relative to the matter and it seems as though when things were about to come to a head, the time for holding the date could not be agreed upon. Principal Gore has written Quincy and Springfield that the local school would not be in the contest this year, but hoped that everything could be satisfactorily arranged next year.

Springfield must still be laboring under the impression that Jacksonville intends to be represented from the following taken from a Springfield paper:

"Springfield high school's debating teams for the Tri-City debate selected last night at a tryout, today began preparations for the inter-city debate with Jacksonville and Quincy to be held April."

"Springfield's negative team consisting of David Shand, Ben Lawless and Charles Ruckel with Foss Locke as alternate will go to Jacksonville on April 4, while Quincy's negative team will come to Springfield to debate against the local affirmative team composed of John Reinboth, Donald Rockwell and Horace Ruckel with Harry Tobin as alternate."

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE!

People Notice It—Drive Them Off With Olive Tablets.

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pimples will vanish after you have taken the tablets a few nights. Nothing ever cleansed the blood, the bowels and liver like Olive Tablets.

Olive Tablets are the only successful substitute for calomel—they oil the bowels; there's never and sickness or pain after taking them. Olive Tablets do all that calomel does and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are made of pure vegetable compounds mixed with olive oil.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Try them. Take one nightly for a week. Then look at yourself in the glass and see how you feel. 10c and 25c per box.

THE SENATORSHIP.

Illinois is now one of the few states in the union unrepresented in the senate. The unseating of Lorimer and the expiration of the term of Shelby M. Cullom following the failure of the members of the present legislature to give a constitutional majority to either of the candidates has led to that result. The long and honorable career of Senator Cullom is one of which the people of the state of Illinois may be proud. He retires full of years and honors, and with a record free from any taint of corruption or scandal.

The failure of the legislature to elect United States senators after being in session so many weeks, leads many to believe that the old gang of bi-partisans have some scheme by which the will of the people as expressed at the primaries last year will be entirely disregarded, and new men, perhaps creatures of a bargain, be substituted. Two men should only be considered, Lawrence Y. Sherman and J. Ham. Lewis. Mr. Lewis received the highest number of votes of any one candidate, while the vote of the Republicans was greatly divided and much larger than the total of the Democratic vote. Lawrence Y. Sherman received the greatest number of votes on the Republican ticket.

A squabble was promptly precipitated as to whether Lewis or Sherman should have the long term—trouble it is thought by many, by men interested in shelving both candidates. L. Y. Sherman, with his usual candor, has said that he was not at this time making a fight for the long term. Gov. Dunne has expressed the conviction that Lewis should have the long term, Sherman the short one. It would seem that the matter could be easily and quickly adjusted. Yet the Democratic state committee, differing from the Democratic governor, insists that two Democrats must be elected—and are favoring men who had not the courage to enter the primaries and make a fight for the place.

In the mix-up the worst elements of both parties have probably made up their minds—they will create all the division possible, while "stalling" and wind up, as a compromise, by electing the men they have (in their own minds) already decided on.

Lewis and Sherman, or Sherman and Lewis, are the straightforward candidates, endorsed by the people of the state, and should by all rules of honesty, be the men selected.

say better when that time arrived. "But," he added, "it would not take me long to make up my mind."

Merely Explains Policy.
Lincoln, Neb., March 5.—Intimate friends of William Jennings Bryan here to day declared it was their belief that Mr. Bryan's statement in Washington statement regarding the tenure of office of himself and members of his department did not indicate any intention on his part to serve as secretary of state temporarily. It was believed that Mr. Bryan was addressing men, some of whom were under civil service and that he wished to assert that no policy had as yet been set by the administration in order to remove the Taft appointees and the filling of their places with new men.

Meets Illinois Leaders.
Tonight the president met Senator Kern of Indiana, Democratic leader in the senate, in the executive offices and talked with him for an hour. They discussed in a general way legislation to be undertaken during the extra session but it is said no definite conclusions were reached. Later the president held a long conference with Governor Dunne of Illinois. Speaker McKinley of the Illinois house and William L. O'Connell, on the Illinois senatorial situation. When they left the offices the Illinois leaders said they were determined to stand firm for the election of J. Hamilton Lewis and Lawrence Y. Sherman for the long and short terms respectively in the United States senate. They added that the president had taken the position that the primary choice of the people should be supported and that no deals of any kind should be entered into.

It was after 10 o'clock when the president finished his day's work as chief executive and retired to his room.

During the evening the portions of the white house usually opened to the public during the early part of the day were opened to several hundred visitors.

After leaving the white house, Governor Dunne issued a statement in which he said that as the result of a "long, pleasant and satisfactory" interview with the president, he adhered to his position that the deadlock in the Illinois legislature should be broken by the election of Lewis, Democrat, and Sherman, Republican, the primary selections for the senate.

MISS EMILINE PANKHURST BROKEN DOWN IN HEALTH

Has Cancelled All Speaking Engagements and Gone to Country For a Rest.

London, March 5.—Miss Emeline Pankhurst, leader of the suffragettes, has broken down completely. She has cancelled all engagements and gone to the country for rest. This announcement was made at a suffragette meeting at Hampstead tonight, where Mrs. Pankhurst was scheduled to speak.

"General" Mrs. Flora Drummond took her place.

MAYOR DAVIS JOINS RANKS OF BENEDICTS

HEAD OF CITY IS WEDDED TO MISS MARY ROWEN.

Ceremony Was Solemnized at Congregational Parsonage by Dr. Roswell O. Post Wednesday Evening—Announcement Came as Total Surprise—Newly Weds Will Have South West Street Home.

Mayor George W. Davis Wednesday night deserted the ranks of bachelorhood and became a benedict. With only the witnesses which the statutes of Illinois require, the chief executive of the city and Miss Mary Rowen were married at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening by Dr. Roswell O. Post at the parsonage of the Congregational church. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Harvey of Hannibal were the witnesses.

So quietly had the bride and groom-to-be made their matrimonial plans that very few people even suspected them and not until late in the afternoon did even the most intimate friends know that the vows were to be said Wednesday. The license was secured late in the afternoon and as a special courtesy to Mayor Davis this valuable document was delivered by County Clerk Boruff and the fact that it had been issued was kept a secret. When the little party arrived at Dr. Post's residence he at first thought that Mr. and Mrs. Harvey were the ones who were looking for a minister but he was informed that the prospective groom was none other than the mayor of Jacksonville. Then the simple but very impressive marriage ceremony was performed.

Immediately afterward Mr. and Mrs. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey were driven to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Harvey on East College street, where an elaborate dinner was served. It was not long until the rumor that the mayor had executed a coup d'état in the way of stealing a march on his friends gained circulation and immediately there came congratulations personally delivered and by telephone. City Commissioner Knollenberg got his congratulations in half an hour after the ceremony had been said and Chief of Police Davis, City Clerk Pyatt and a Journal reporter called at the Harvey residence at 7:30 o'clock.

A number of city employees planned to give the mayor and his bride a charivari last night but were deterred by the announcement that the newlyweds were going to Chicago the next day. However, this wedding journey was not taken and mayor and Mrs. Davis are now at their home, 724 South West street.

Mrs. Davis, whose maiden name was Miss Mary Rowen, came to Jacksonville from Greene county a number of years ago and for an extended period was an office assistant for Dr. H. C. Campbell and a member of his family. During the past year she has been taking training in the nurses' school connected with the well known Levering hospital at Hannibal. Mayor Davis has been a frequent visitor in Hannibal and he and Mrs. Rowen were often entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey.

Mrs. Davis is a young woman of charming personality and was admirably fitted for the important profession for which she was studying. She decided, however, that no work of greater moment than home-making and that decision has brought her to be welcomed in Jacksonville as the mayor's bride.

Mayor Davis is probably known to every man, woman and child in Jacksonville, for this city has been his home since boyhood. He served the city for six years as clerk and during his term performing duties in such a way and formed such friendships that he was two years ago elected to the highest office in the gift of the city. For years he has taken an active part in local politics, he is known all over the state in connection with the Great Council of Red Men, and is prominently affiliated with other orders also. It so happens therefore that a very wide circle of friends will join with the countless friends here in Jacksonville in extending to Mayor Davis their congratulations and good wishes.

For several weeks past the shade of a gas lamp such as one sees usually on a home library table has occupied a space in one corner of the mayor's office and this comparatively insignificant piece of glass has occasioned many a question—and now all the questions are answered.

At the Harvey residence last night Mayor Davis said: "Well we have been a little quiet about this affair but that is really the best way. Mrs. Davis has been in Jacksonville since Monday and our intention was that she should return from a brief visit in White Hall. This afternoon, however, we decided there was no use waiting until Saturday and so we had the little wedding at 6 o'clock tonight. That's all there is to it, we're married, and that's enough."

All new late models will be shown in our millinery display next Wednesday, March 12. Wait for it.

SENATE RECEIVES CABINET NOMINATIONS

Some Opposition to Appointment of Redfield Was Made But Later Withdrawn.

Washington, May 5.—When the senate met this afternoon and the cabinet nominations were received, other nominations were Edgar A. Clark of Iowa, re-appointed as United States commerce commissioner, and John H. Marble, secretary of the commission to be a commissioner in succession to Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior. The senate went into executive session and confirmed all the cabinet nominations and also that of Mr. Clark. It did not, however, confirm Mr. Marble.

Some opposition to the appointment of William C. Redfield as secretary of commerce was made by Senator Gallinger in executive session. Mr. Redfield has been active in a house committee investigation of two local fire insurance companies in which the name of a relative of Senator Gallinger was brought in. The senator finally withdrew his objection at the request of other senators.

It was said there was no hostility to Mr. Marble's nomination but the senate wished to have his name fully considered by the senate interstate commerce committee.

The senate then adjourned until 2 p. m. Friday.

Deputy Sheriffs Kettering and Andrews were in Woodson and Murrayville yesterday collecting taxes.

WILL BE RARE TREAT.
Arrangements have been made, whereby the humorous and well plotted play entitled "Cupid at the Varsity" will be given Tuesday evening March 11 at the Central Christian church. This play is to be staged by Phi Nu society of the Woman's college.

ILLINOIS OAT YIELDS.

Farmers' Institute Seeks Improvement For This Crop.

A study of the oat yields of Illinois by 15-year periods since 1864 shows average yields of 29.8, 34.8 and 32.4 bushels per acre, respectively. Studying the crop since 1874 by 5-year periods we find the average yield to be 30.8 bushels per acre, a decrease of practically four bushels per acre in the average yield. This declining yield of oats gives us a problem to solve.

The study of corn resulted in great improvement of that crop, and oats may be improved also if we investigate and adopt methods that make for better quality of grain and larger yields.

Important Factors.

There are several important factors to be considered in our efforts to secure an increased yield of oats. The soil, of course, is the most important factor—its physical condition and its supply of fertility. Soils which contain a generous supply of humus retain a moisture supply that is very necessary during the heated period (usually about two weeks) which is usually dry, and during which time the crop draws heavily on soil moisture. Fields well supplied with humus usually bring their crops through this period without any check in growth.

The preparation of the seed bed, the quality, the amount, and the even distribution of the seed are other important factors that have large influence on results. It is believed that the practice of "mudding in" the oats crop is bad, and that for the benefit of the land as well as for increased yields and the destruction of the corn root aphid, better preparation of the seed bed should be practiced.

Seed Must Be Graded.

The use of ungraded seed is bad practice as most varieties of oats have within them an inferior strain; they at least have many small grains of weak vitality and type; the use of the fanning mill blows these out and the screens separate the small kernels from the large, plump ones and these only should be retained for seed. The consensus of opinion among successful growers is that varieties requiring about 100 days for maturity are the most satisfactory. Silvermine, Big Four, Twentieth Century, Banner, Siberian, White Bonanza, and other varieties of like type are recommended.

Drill Gives Best Results.

When oats are seeded broadcast there are usually many small areas in the fields where the plants are much too thick and others where they are much too thin and in each case the yield is reduced. With intelligent use of the drill the grain is measured out uniformly and placed in the ground at regular depth giving an even stand and a chance for uniform growth. Some growers report a larger yield from one bushel per acre of selected, graded, and drilled seed, than from a much larger quantity of the same seed sown broadcast. In all comparisons reported the better seed bed, graded seed and the use of the drill has outyielded other methods by several bushels.—H. A. McKeene, secretary, Illinois Farmers' Institute.

W. S. Skelton, a merchant at Stanley, Ind., says he would not take $100.00 for the relief a single box of Foley Kidney Pills gave him. ANNIVERSARY OF BOSTON MASSACRE.

Boston, Mass., March 5.—One hundred and forty-three years ago night Captain Preston, commander of the British guard in Boston, gave the command which caused so much bloodshed and added another step toward the Revolutionary war. The Boston massacre claimed three of the patriots who were defending their homes and demanding their rights against the onslaughts of the British troops who had made life anything but pleasant during the period after the repeal of the Stamp Act.

Resenting the insults put to them by the men and boys of Boston, the British troops protected themselves against the charge of the indignant Boston men. When the smoke of the British guns cleared away there were eleven men stretched on the ground, of whom three were killed and eight wounded.

Although the demonstration of the Boston folk was but defensive move, it had a great deal to do with the hastening of the Revolutionary war. When several Boston lawyers, who were also staunch patriots, acted as counsel for Captain Preston, who was tried for murder, there was great excitement, but Preston was acquitted on the ground that he had done his duty as an officer.

NEW DIRECTORY.

If you expect to have an Illinois telephone installed in your place of business or residence soon, by placing your order now your name will appear in the new directory which will be out about April the first.

WILL GIVE "ENOCH ARDEN."

On Monday evening, March 10, at 8 o'clock, Miss Edith Parsons, of the faculty of the school of expression of Illinois Woman's college, will read Tennyson's poem, "Enoch Arden" assisted by Mr. Max Swarthout at the piano with musical accompaniment especially written by Richard Strauss.

The music is not a mere accompaniment or background of the recitation, but recitation and music are so handled that each interprets the other and together they produce a single impression. Other composers are taking hold of the same idea, and there can be no doubt that this new art form is to have many exponents.

From the time of its first appearance the "Enoch Arden" program has met with universal success.

There is no charge for admission and all friends of the college and those interested are cordially invited to be present.

The Forty Years Test.

An article must have exceptional merit to survive for a period of forty years. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was first offered to the public in 1872. From a small beginning it has grown in favor and popularity until it has attained a world wide reputation. You will find nothing better for a cough or cold. Try it and you will understand why it is a favorite after a period of more than forty years. It not only gives relief—it cures. For sale by all dealers.

Pimples Source of Great Danger

May be Means of Absorbing Disease Germs in Most Unexpected Manner.

Bid Farewell to All Blood and Skin Diseases.

The research laboratory of The Swift Specific Co. has collected a vast amount of information regarding the spread of blood diseases. In thousands of instances the most virulent types have been the result of coming in contact with disease germs in public places, and the apparently insignificant pimple has been the cause. It spreads with astonishing rapidity, often infecting the entire system in a few days.

It is fortunate, however, that there is a remedy to cope quickly and thoroughly with such a condition, and thanks to the energy of its producers the famous S. S. S. may now be had at almost any drug store in the civilized world.

This preparation stands alone among specific remedies as a blood purifier. It is somewhat revolutionary in its composition, since it accomplishes all that has ever claimed for mercury, iodides, arsenic and other destructive mineral drugs, and yet it is absolutely a purely vegetable product. There are more cases of articular rheumatism, locomotor ataxia, paresis, neuritis and similar diseases resultant from the use of minerals than from disease germs direct. These facts are brought out in a highly interesting book compiled by the medical department of The Swift Specific Co., 127 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. It is mailed free, together with a special letter of advice to all who are struggling with a blood disease.

Get a $1.00 bottle of S. S. S. to-day of your druggist. It will surprise you with its wonderful action in the blood.

NOTICE

To Farmers and Stock Raisers

We are now manufacturing under State License, the best Brand of hog food on market known as "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD." It is far superior to any Brand of Hog food on the market to day. It is guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906, Serial No. 47,673. Guaranteed analysis as follows:

Crude Fat.....10.00 to 14 per cent
Crude Protein.....52.50 to 60 per cent
Crude Fibre.....1.00 to 3 per cent
Phosphate.....10.00 to 12 per cent

What Is "Sure Fatten Hog Food"

It is a dark colored granular meal, made from meat residues, and it supplies the protein and phosphates necessary for compounding a balanced ration in most economical and palatable form. It contains phosphates in proper proportion to insure strength of bone and frame work. In the corn belt bone development is a matter of serious consideration.

It is not a substitute for corn, but a small quantity fed in connection with corn or other grains gives a balanced ration. It is the most economical source of digestible protein known, containing twice as much protein as oil meal and five times as much as middlings, shorts, shipstuf, or alfalfa meal.

TANKAGE recommended by all leading experiment stations.

It is packed in one-hundred-pound burlap sack, plainly marked "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD," analysis as above.

It is the ideal feed to balance rations.

What "Sure Fatten Hog Food" Tankage Does.

It develops bone and muscle in young pigs and makes them grow. It matures a hog for market in two and three months quicker than corn alone, thereby, saving one third of the feed bill, one third of the labor, one third of the risk, increasing profits one third.

It grows better proportioned hogs, more meat, and more fat, hence market-topper hogs. SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD TANKAGE fed hogs ship well with small shrink.

While in nowise a medicine, it so fortifies and strengthens the system against attacks of disease germs that SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD TANKAGE fed hogs are universally healthy hogs.

JACKSONVILLE PEOPLE NOW IN SAN FRANCISCO

S. W. Nichols Tells of Meeting Former Residents in California City—Abroad Ship For Honolulu.

Of course we took in Chinatown with all its unique attractions and we were both fortunate and unfortunate in being there at the time of the Chinese new year. Many of the stores were closed, but on the other hand the people were at their best and parading the streets, while thousands of fire crackers had been set off and many more were exploded during our walk. We entered a gambling room where dice were the medium of play and saw all sorts of children from babies up attired in gala dress and they looked strange enough. Here I saw a number of fathers proudly carrying their little folks grandly arrayed in bright colored dresses and fine head scarves, though of course there were no women thus engaged. We saw one woman with her hair done up looking like a piece of wax work, but she soon vanished.

The great stores had their usual attractions and we made some purchases, though I counseled my friends to wait till we reached the land itself. There are also a good many stores conducted by Japanese and these were all open and some had very beautiful goods.

I had a very pleasant visit with my long time friend, H. Kuehler, who has risen since coming to San Francisco. He took a course in civil engineering in Leland Stanford university and entered the employ of the Standard Oil Company and gradually rose until he is now assistant general manager and says it is virtually a California oil company. They occupy the upper story of the Sheldon building but will before long move into their own structure centrally located.

When I called I entered the outer office where a number of clerks were employed and was obliged to send in my name and state my business before being admitted to the quarters of the assistant manager. I sent in word that my name was Nichols and that I was a former resident of Jacksonville and was wanted for a dinner. I was promptly admitted and received most cordially. Hal's head of a party and he was glad to do all he could for me. I had a little financial business to look after and he gave me good advice that and then insisted that I must see his home and eat with him, so calling one day at four across and then a railroad to San Francisco and in an hour from leaving the office we were at the town.

It is most charmingly situated amid grand hills and mountains, while the lovely valley is green and charming. Aca-dia trees around tall redwood trees and green lawns look indeed wonderful to us at this time of the year and it seemed impossible that we had so recently been where the snow was four or five feet deep on a level. He lives in a beautiful home with all modern conveniences and has a swimming pool and a little sweet little old boy. I was very kindly received and shown over the pleasant home, which is surrounded with everything to make life pleasant. An orange tree in the front yard had ripening fruit on it, as the frost state did make or did not make a lemon tree supplies the family with all fruit needed in that line and the home was indeed a haven of beauty and domestic happiness.

Mr. Kuehler met his wife while associated with her five brothers and she certainly has a good home maker and she has a devoted and worthy husband. The entire visit was most pleasant and the fine dinner greatly enjoyed. Kuehler had many questions to ask about Jacksonville and all that pertained to it, the college, the church, the schools, the water works and many more things were of interest to him.

He was always pleasant to see one of our boys who grew from faces and was to do the place honor and succeed in life.

Of course we took in the mint and were politely conducted about the establishment and enjoyed that part of the day.

Friday another fine treat was enjoyed by our party. I have already mentioned the Wright boys, Wm. Henry and Stanley. They are located at Richmond, a suburb of the great city across the bay, are in the real estate business and to all appearances doing finely. They have two automobiles and then use the car in their business, showing clients about. Only the day before they closed a large deal which did well for them and they seem to be on the high road to prosperity.

Stanley called for us at our hotel at one Friday, took us a fine spin through Golden Gate park, out to the Cliff house and other interesting places. There were many seals in sight, but we saw a few sport in the waves and as we were driving back we met an ambulance which had been sent for to take to the morgue the body of a poor fellow who had grown tired of life and had drowned himself in the breakers. It was a sad sight, but Mr. Wright said it was not uncommon, as many chose that way of shuffling off the mortal coil.

Golden Gate park is a veritable fairy land and must have cost a mint of money. They have several inclosures occupied by buffalo, elk, deer, bears and various other wild animals, while in the museum are to be seen curiosities from all parts of the world. There are probably fifty miles of fine drives, while ball grounds, tennis courts, play grounds are to be found in the various places, though generally the park is covered with trees and grass. It did not seem indeed strange to see such green grass and rich verdure in the winter, but such is the case in this part of the golden state.

We shall long remember with sincere gratitude the obliging young man from Jacksonville who gave us such an afternoon of pleasure and hope that the successful business he and his brother are conducting will continue to grow to prosper right along.

Next morning we spent in attending to the final preparations for embarking and I clock saw us aboard the good ship "Nile" of the Pacific Mail S. S. Co. It is a staunch and sturdy craft built on the Clyde in Glasgow, Scotland, and rides the waves beautifully. Travel is rather light just now and the passenger list is not large, but there are some pleasant people on board and one sees the usual variety of human nature. We were wonderfully amused at one lady who is traveling with her husband who is suffering with something akin to nervous prostration, probably caused by too strenuous exertions to make money. With them is their son, a sturdy youth, his mother says he is 19 years old, though he seems several years older. She didn't deign to mention his name in the list, but registered as Mrs. Maud and son and remarked to me that she had everything to look after as her son wasn't old enough to attend to business. She had arranged for guides and waiters at the ports at which they expected to stop so that their baggage, hotels, guides, and everything would be looked after as all the care of everything fell on her. I couldn't help smiling as I looked at the strapping big young man and wondering when he would be old enough to attend to business matters.

I had one truly delightful surprise. A bright, cheery little woman said she had crossed the ocean a number of times and had not been asked and I asked her if she was a missionary and she said she was that her name was Mrs. Fairfield, Takunien, Shansi, China. She had been home for the benefit of her health and was returning. She and her husband were classmates in Oberlin, where they became engaged and when she was done he followed her and they were married in Japan.

She said so she has been on the field five years and he was. He went back with her last September and the board wanted him to stay a year and speak for the work in various churches, but so in love with the work was he that he begged to be sent back and he was allowed to go in a month and now his little wife is well and returning to be with him. She beseeches us to visit them, but it will take four days' travel more than we had expected and it will be hard to accomplish as our itinerary is long as it is. She knows Rev. Charles L. Storrs who visited us last summer and Rev. Leonard Christian, the missionary pastor of the Congregational church, and many more. We have placed her steam chair next to ours and have enjoyed many pleasant hours with her. I am tempted to add another fact. The moment I saw her there was a familiar look in her face and I began trying to think where I had seen her and then it dawned upon me that she would pass for the twin sister of Marie, Richard Dye of our place and I remarked to her that it was a compliment to advise her of the fact.

TO AILING WOMEN

A Little Sound Advice Will Help Many a Sufferer in Jacksonville.

No woman should consider herself healthy and well if the kidneys are weak. Poisons that pass off in the secretions when the kidneys are well, are retained in the body when the kidneys are disordered. If the kidneys and bladder become inflamed and swollen worse troubles may quickly follow. This is often the cause of bearing-down pains, lameness, backache, etc. Uric poisoning is also frequent cause of headaches, dizzy spells, languor, nervousness and rheumatic pain.

When suffering so, try Doan's Kidney Pills, a remedy that has proven effective in thousands of such cases. Let a Jacksonville woman tell of her experience.

My name is Mary E. Doan, 302 McKett Ave., Jacksonville, Ill. says: "I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills for several years and I know them to be a good, reliable remedy. When I have a pain in my back and my kidneys do not act regularly, I get Doan's Kidney Pills at Armstrong's Drug Store. They bring me great relief and I have no hesitation in saying so."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

IMPROVING BUILDING.

Reisch Bros. of Springfield, owners of the building occupied by Estaque as a garage, are making great improvements in their building, made necessary by Estaque's increasing business.

When Burton Holmes recently gave his celebrated travelogue on "Panama" at Orchestra hall, Chicago, he was seriously interrupted by continual coughing of the audience. No one annoys willingly and if people with coughs, colds, hoarseness and tickling in throat would use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, they could quickly cure their coughs and colds and avoid the annoyance. HAVE FILED DAMAGE SUIT.

William N. Hairgrove and P. P. Thompson have filed a damage suit for $10,000 against the C. B. & Q. R. R. on behalf of Donalver Squires for personal injuries. The declaration has not been filed, but it is known that the suit results from injuries sustained by Mr. Squires when a Burlington freight train backed into him. He was at a hospital for some time and had one leg and a finger of one hand amputated.

STOCK MARKET SHOWS BETTER TONE

NO SIGN OF HEAVINESS WHICH DEVELOPED TUESDAY.

Bear Traders Attempted to Bring About Further Decline, But Make Little Headway—Prices Take Definite Upward Turn.

(By Associated Press)
New York, March 5.—Although trading was not on a large scale, there was aggressive buying at times today of the favorite stocks especially Reading, Steel and Amalgamated. There was no sign of the heaviness which developed late yesterday. Bear traders attempted to bring about a further decline in the early session, but were unable to make headway, prices fluctuated for a time and then moved definitely upward. There was a scarcity of stocks around the early ranges and it was necessary to raise bids in all quarters of the list, the standard issues being marked up 1 to 2 points.
Profit taking in spots during the afternoon cut into the earlier gains. Some of the specialties moved irregularly. This was particularly true of the tobacco stocks. Pump issues were weak. There were no developments upon which the day's movements could be based, speculative conditions remaining unchanged. Although London cables were more cheerful, there was no foreign demand for American stocks, and London was reported to have sold in this market. Money rates were easier and exchange rates showed a firmer tendency.
Copper stocks were benefitted by reports of active European demand. It was said that sales of substantial amounts were made at 15c for electrolytic. Domestic consumers, however, showed no disposition to enter the market freely.
The February report of the copper producers, to be published this week, is expected to show no marked changes.

GREY LIKELY TO BE THE NEXT BRITISH PREMIER

Asquith's ailing Health Will Necessitate His Retirement.

London, March 5.—As the session of parliament proceeds it becomes daily more evident to close observers that contingencies may force an early change of administration. The cares of office are telling heavily on Mr. Asquith and it is believed that he is only awaiting a favorable time to retire from the premiership.

The question as to who is most likely to be the next premier is now being freely discussed, notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Asquith has as yet given no outward indication that he intends to take advantage of his often expressed wish to retire.

It is an open secret that both Mr. Lloyd George and Mrs. Winston Churchill are waiting for the day when their chief finds the burden of his office too great for his years and seeks repose in the House of Lords. But factional differences may, and perhaps will prevent either of these gentlemen from realizing his ambition to succeed Mr. Asquith in the premiership. If such proves to be the case it will become necessary to cast about for some one else to take the reins of government.

In the opinion of many competent judges of the situation the only available man possessing the requisite qualities of leadership of Sir Edward Grey. There are those who confidently declare that it is only a question of time until Sir Edward becomes prime minister.

The grandson of Sir George Grey, who was several times home secretary, and the grand nephew of Earl Grey of reform bill fame, Sir Edward inherits political instincts and talent of the highest order. He had scarcely attained his majority when he became private secretary to Sir Evelyn Baring (later Lord Cromer), and he acted in the same capacity to Mr. Childers at the time the latter was chancellor of the exchequer. Entering parliament at the age of twenty-three years, he made some stir at an early period of his career by his independence on the question of Irish land purchase.

He was only thirty when Mr. Gladstone appointed him in 1892, under secretary for foreign affairs. As his chief was in the House of Lords his position was important, and became particularly delicate when Lord Rosebery succeeded to the premiership. Sir Edward Grey had to expound a policy with which it was suspected Lord Rosebery's principal colleague did not always sympathize. He did the dork which then fell to his hand with courage as well as with propriety. Later during the period of Liberal opposition, he came strongly to the front as a critic of the foreign policy of the Balfour administration.

Although his style is restrained, Sir Edward's speeches are nearly always impressive and effective. Once he was announced to address a meeting of northern miners who were keen radicals. Instead of giving them a slashing harangue, Sir Edward spoke sedately on foreign affairs, yet his manner was such that his audience listened with deep interest.

Chronic Stomach Trouble Cured.

There is nothing more discouraging than a chronic disorder of the stomach. Is it not surprising that many suffer for years with such an ailment when a permanent cure is within their reach and may be had for a trifle? "About one year ago," says P. H. Beck, of Wakarusa, Mich., "I bought a package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and since using them I have felt perfectly well. I had previously used any number of different medicines, but none of them were of any lasting benefit." For sale by all dealers.

BUSINESS MEN TO DISCUSS RATING SYSTEM

Important Meeting to Be Held Friday Morning.

The rating system which has been used to such a good advantage by the members of the Business Men's association has not been systematically revised for a year or two. There are about ten thousand ratings in the index files located in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, but many of them are quite old and obsolete. There have been many changes in the addresses, and people have moved away from Jacksonville which is not indicated by their cards.

The retail men, are the persons suffering the most when they extend credit to customers, who never intend to meet their obligations. The most sensible protection is to be informed by some central agency of the experience other merchants have had with such dead beats. Business men of Jacksonville are losing hundreds, yes thousands of dollars a year by extending credit to people, some of whom are strangers, when an up-to-date rating system can save them money and future embarrassment.

A credit rating committee with C. L. Mathis as chairman are anxious to recommend to the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, a number of improvements over the present system provided other retailers are interested enough to acquaint themselves with what is necessary. The retail merchants have now a department which is practically the same as their own organization, and they are to blame if much needed reforms are not accomplished.

T. M. Tomlinson, chairman of the retail division has called a meeting at 8:30 sharp Friday morning in the Chamber of Commerce rooms. This meeting means as much if not more to the proprietors of the neighborhood grocery store as it does to the merchant on the square. The organization is for your service and you are the loser if you do not take advantage of it.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been not only proven by scientific research, but, also, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the forerunner of baldness, caused by parasites destroying the vitality of the hair. The hair becomes lifeless and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newcomb's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundance.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of men and women who are satisfied that it is the most perfect hair preparation on the market to-day.

ATTORNEY GENERAL SAYS CITIES CANNOT REGULATE AUTO SPEED

Declares This Matter is Covered in State Law—Jacksonville Ordinance Gives Lower Limits Than Illinois Law.

Attorney General Lucey has given an opinion that cities cannot regulate the speed of privately owned automobiles, that they are subject only to the state law. In some cities, Jacksonville among the number, this has already been the interpretation of the law. Chief of Police Davis said yesterday that last season practically all of the speeders arrested paid fines without the formality of papers being sworn out, but that where warrants were necessary state warrants were sworn out. The police department acted in conjunction with State's Attorney Tilton and the fines collected were turned over to the city.

The city ordinance relating to speed, according to Attorney Lucey, is void. It fixes as will be noted below a lower rate than the state law.

State Law Speed Limits.

The state law speed limits are as follows:

Through the closely built up business portion of a city, ten miles an hour.

Through the residence portion of a city, fifteen miles an hour.

Outside the closely built up business portion and the residence portion but within a city's limits, twenty miles an hour.

Upon a highway outside of cities or villages, twenty-five miles an hour.

Exceeding these limits shall be taken as prima facie evidence that the person operating the motor driven vehicle is running at a speed greater than is reasonable and proper, having regard to the traffic and the use of the way or so as to endanger the life or limb or injure the property of any person.

City Automobile Law.
§78. Section 11. That no person shall drive an automobile or other motor vehicle upon or along any public street or highway within the corporate limits of the city of Jacksonville at a greater rate of speed than is hereinafter designated, as follows:

(a) A speed of one (1) mile in ten minutes when turning a corner of intersecting streets, and a speed of one mile in four (4) minutes where any street or highway passes through the residence portions of the city.

(b) A speed of one (1) mile in six (6) minutes where such street or highway passes through closely built up business portions of the city.

(c) Provided, however, that nothing in this section contained shall permit any person to drive a motor vehicle at a speed greater than is reasonable, having a record to the traffic and use of highways, or so as to endanger the life or limb or injure the property of any person.

And no two automobiles shall be permitted to run abreast along any public street at the same time, and all automobiles shall be using the public streets and highways of the city after dusk shall be required to have on the front end of each automobile a brilliant and conspicuous light placed in such a manner as to be plainly in view of the traveling public, and shall also be provided with a loud horn, bell or gong to furnish a suitable alarm, and any person violating any of the provisions of this section, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than a hundred dollars.

Attorney General's Opinion.
In his opinion, Attorney General Lucey declares that cities and villages in Illinois, though they can tax commercial automobiles, cannot legally regulate, by ordinances, the speed of privately owned automobiles. It follows if the supreme court sustains this opinion the collection of fines by cities for alleged violation of "speed" ordinances is illegal.

The opinion, which was issued to A. W. Schaefer of Pekin in response to a request for a construction of the law of 1911, is state wide in its scope.

The attorney general, who reviews the law in several of its sections, contends that cities can legally collect a tax or a license from persons who operate motor vehicles for public hire, or commercialized automobiles, but he says a city cannot enforce an ordinance which relates to the rate of speed of motor vehicles, except in the case of motor vehicles used for public hire.

Attorney General Lucey cites a construction of the law of 1911 placed by the supreme court in the case of People against Sargent. In this case the power of the city of Chicago to license drivers of commercial automobiles was the issue. The case sustained the license feature, but the attorney general, from the opinion, construes the court to have declared that the general assembly did not intend to convey that cities had power to regulate, by ordinances, the speed of private machines.

The chief effect of the attorney general's opinion is to stamp as illegal the collection of fines by cities, which fines are paid into city treasuries for speed violations. In other words, it is left to the state to make cases against offending "speed" violators.

Peace Delegates Killed.

El Paso, Texas, March 5.—One hundred killed and probably several Maderistas killed or wounded was the toll of a battle between the peace envoys on their way back to Mexico City where the Huerta rebel peace conference is to be held and Maderistas who attacked the envoys train at Santa Rosalia, Chihuahua, yesterday.

The rebels apparently in control of the town charged the special train bearing peace delegates. Instantly the passengers returned the fire through the coach windows. One federal soldier of the train guard was killed. After the first fusillade the Maderistas then retreated. The train then returned and the train crew reported four of the Maderistas killed.

'SPRING MAID' DELIGHTS LARGE AUDIENCE AT GRAND WEDNESDAY

Company Headed By Miss Marguerite Wright Gives Excellent Performance of Werba & Luescher's Production.

Headed by Miss Marguerite Wright, a well balanced company gave a performance of the operetta "The Spring Maid," at the Grand opera house Wednesday evening that was witnessed by a capacity audience that was seemingly well pleased.

Miss Wright proved herself a clever actress in her interpretation of Princess Bozena and the romantic story is interspersed with laughable comedy produced by Charles McNaughton, in the role of Roland, the famous English tragedian. Briefly the play deals with the flirtatious love affair of the Princess Bozena and Prince Aladar. The prince, in order to mete out a punishment to Aladar, for disparaging remarks made by him of the women of her station, masquerades as a peasant girl and completely captures his heart. When she has him in love with her she spurns him, only to find herself in love with the prince. Reese R. Reese, took the part of Prince Aladar, and these three principals were supported by a very competent cast. The music of the play is very catchy and in staging the production Werba & Luescher left nothing to be desired in brilliancy of costumes and beauty of scenery.

VANDAL DAMAGES EIGHT
GETTYSBURG MONUMENTS

Monuments on Battlefield Suffer at Hands of Vandal Who Uses Heavy Hammer for Work.

Gettysburg, Pa., March 5.—Eight monuments on the Gettysburg battlefield were badly damaged last night by a vandal who evidently used a heavy hammer for his destructive work. The monuments which suffered were the Fifth Corps Headquarters 49th and 96th Pennsylvania, 49th New York, Grant's Vermont brigade, 60th Maine, 50th Wisconsin and 37th Massachusetts. Large pieces of granite were chipped off all the monuments while in several instances parts of the faces of soldiers were knocked off, guns smashed and portions of bodies broken.

It is believed the work was done by some one disappointed in seeking employment in the national park.
